SANTA MONICA-MALIBU WINE AUCTION

by Mona Day

The Santa Monica-Malibu Education Foundation (SMMEF) presented an inaugural Santa Monica-Malibu Wine Auction on Sunday, April 17 at the Fairmont Miramar Hotel & Bungalows. The event featured wine and food tastings from local restaurants to raise funds for local public schools.

Participating restaurants included Ashland Hill, Bar Pinxto, BOA,

2 and Wilshire.

Wine and spirits included Ascendant Spirits, Blue Danube Wine, Eric Kent Cellars, Far Niente Winery, Hartford Court, Jordan Winery, Joseph Phelps, Justin Wines, La Crema Winery, Liquid Farm Wines, Montagna Cellars, Orin Swift Cellars, Plough Wine Group, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Stolpman Vineyards, Stonestreet Wines, Trefethen Winery, Turnbull Cellars, Union Wine Company and The Wine House.

Silent and live auctions offered jewelry, travel, wines, and gift certificates for experiences. In conjunction, a supporting online auction went live April 6-18.

All event proceeds benefit SMMEF, which funds staff and programs for the district's 16 schools, 4,900 elementary students, and 87 instruction assistants. Its grants support programs in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM), visual and performing arts, as well as student wellness.

Event supporters included Dun & Bradstreet, Fairmont Miramar Hotel & Bungalows, Kaiser Permanente, Macerich/Santa Monica Place, and many local businesses.
